

STOVER A SMALL NEW PRESIDENT OF HEALTH BD.

The Board of Health held its first meeting of the new year Wednesday night in council chambers at the fire engine house and elected Stover A. Small president for the year. Dr. Harrison F. Harbach was elected vice president. Health Officer Donald E. Staub continues as secretary-treasurer.

The board adopted a 1953 budget for submission to the borough council totaling $1,000, the same amount as last year. Budget items include: Salary of health officer, $600; health officer's expenses for postage, telephone and other items, $45; printing of forms, licenses, etc., $150; incidentals, including specimen containers, fumigation materials, etc., $25; expenses for spring cleanup campaign, $130; printing placards for cleanup, $50.

The health officer reported he had made 14 restaurant inspections and issued 18 restaurant licenses. Four restaurants have two dining rooms or grills, he said.

Suggested Hummelbaugh
A letter written by Russell W. Guise, principal sanitary engineer of the state, to Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit, and turned over by the latter to John MacPhail, health board member, was read.

The letter enclosed a copy of sanitary regulations covering nuisances, said some mosquitoes carry malaria and sleeping sickness, and suggested that the Board of Health and the Health Committee of the Borough Council might obtain former Councilman Fred Hummelbaugh to supervise a mosquito control program this year in Gettysburg.

Mr. Hummelbaugh, while a member of council, was in charge of this work. It was suggested that a medical student or college professor be obtained to do the actual mosquito work. The letter was received and filed.

All five members of the board attended the meeting. Mr. Small, Dr. Harbach, Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, George E. Burger and Atty. MacPhail.

ANNUAL MARCH OF DIMES DRIVE GETS UNDERWAY

The Adams County March of Dimes Chapter this week opened its annual "March of Dimes" campaign to raise funds for polio victims throughout the county, in conjunction with similar campaigns being conducted throughout the nation in January.

Nearly 12,000 mailing cards will be sent out this week to automobile owners and donation boxes placed in business places and other prominent locations in Gettysburg. Some of the donation boxes have been distributed in the county, and others will be placed later this week.

Persons receiving the mailing cards are urged to return them with their contributions to the polio fund as soon as possible.

Mrs. Joseph E. Codori, chairman, said funds were urgently needed. Heavy demands were made on the society during 1952 because of the number of new polio cases in the county, she said, and the need also for funds to continue work among victims stricken with the disease in previous years who are still in need of treatment and special equipment and aids.

Tickets will soon be placed on sale for the annual March of Dimes dance, a further project to raise funds in the county to aid polio victims, Mrs. Codori said. The dance will be held at the Hotel Gettysburg on January 30.

While the polio fund campaign is already on the way, Mrs. Codori said that committees, both for the drive and for the annual dance, have not been completed. She said complete lists of committees will be announced within a few days.

DR. HARBACH IS NAMED HEAD OF MEDICAL GROUP

The monthly meeting of the Adams County Medical Society was held Wednesday night in the board room at the Warner Hospital, with 16 present. Dr. William North Sterrett, president, presided.

During a brief business session the following officers were elected: President, Dr. Harrison F. Harbach; president-elect, Dr. David C. Stoner; secretary-treasurer, Dr. James H. Allison.

Three members from the State Medical Society offices in Harrisburg, Robert L. Richards, staff secretary, C. C. Murlatt, and Roger N. White, were present and briefed the county society on the public relations program adopted by the state society for the forthcoming year.

Emergency Call Service
Mr. Murlatt is a resident of Gettysburg and both he and Mr. Richards are graduates of Gettysburg College.

On the local level this state program, speakers said, includes establishment of a medical emergency call service in each county. At the present time, five counties in Pennsylvania are completely covered by such a service, 29 are partly covered and five are partly covered by calls being taken in hospitals. Adams County is partially covered by such a service.

The second part of the state program includes establishment of county mediation committees to improve professional relationships among doctors and between doctors and the public, the speakers said. It is intended, they added, that the public should have recourse to such committees where professional problems regarding fees and other matters are involved. Such a committee has been functioning in Adams County for some time, and its members for the forthcoming year include Dr. J. L. Boyer, Dr. Walter S. Mountain and Dr. Philip Zulick.

Public Relations
The third point to be developed is a speakers bureau for civic organizations and clubs. The Adams County Society has also functioned for some time in this respect. It is also hoped to improve medical professional relationships with the press, radio and voluntary health agencies.

WIDEST COLOR CHOICE IN NEW OLDSMOBILE

The new 1953 Oldsmobiles are more colorful by far, inside and outside, and more harmonious in color combinations than ever before in Oldsmobile history. It was announced today by G. R. Jones, general sales manager of the GM Lansing division. Fourteen of the body colors offered in the three 1953 series are brand new. The new "Olds" are now on display at Glenn L. Bream's garage, Buford Avenue.

Color experts of the Oldsmobile styling section are recommending 49 two-tone color combinations in the 1953 line, Jones declared. The total is more than three times last year's "colorama." As an example of such specialized recommendations, he called attention to the two-tone combination of Acacia (light) blue lower body and cadet (dark) blue top.

Among the brand new colors are six in the light shade classification, including fern green, mist gray, Polar white, lotus cream and regal turquoise. Six medium (Continued on Page 11)

FTC ENDS ITS HEARING HERE; RETURN TO D. C.

The Federal Trade Commission hearing into alleged price-fixing in the apple industry completed its sessions here Wednesday afternoon and moved back to Washington, preparing to resume its activities Friday morning at 10 o'clock in Room 532 in the FTC Building there.

Wednesday's session was the slowest moving of the three days here with most of the time given over to consideration of 280 government exhibits, covering about 600 pages of documents, submitted Monday and Tuesday by government attorneys to Examiner Frank Hier. Each of the exhibits, from No. 110 to 390 was brought up individually and attorneys for the respondents were permitted to make their objections. Then the government attorneys argued why they should be submitted, and finally Hier would make his decision on whether the exhibits should be included. Eighty-six were excluded from the record, totalling about 200 pages.

Argues With Examiner
At one point Hier observed, "since the government attorneys won't tell me what they are charging I suppose we'll have to put in everything back to 1914 when the act was passed."

Attorney Leslie Miller argued with Hier: "But I've told you and told you we look on this as an evolutionary thing. We don't have to go back to 1914, but we do have to go back to 1936." Attorney David C. Putney, of Harrisburg, representing Knouse Foods cut in: "Next I suppose Mr. Miller will be claiming Appalachian Apple was illegally formed when it was established?"

Miller's response was: "Might have been."

At one point when attorneys were arguing among themselves over an exhibit, Hier turned to the official recorder of the hearing and observed, "Cut off the record, that chattering (the attorneys' arguing) doesn't mean anything."

Commissioners Vote 1-Mill Boost In County Tax Rate For '53; Blame Crime Costs

Adams County's taxes will be one mill higher this year, the commissioners decided Wednesday after tentative adoption of the 1953 budgets.

The additional mill will increase the tax for county purposes to seven mills. The institution district rate was continued at five mills despite a planned outlay of $55,000 for improvement to the county home.

The institution district levy had been increased from four to five mills last year in anticipation of improvements at the county home. With the approximately $20,000 gained through that increase, plus other balances saved over previous years, the commissioners expect to pay for the renovation of the former insane building, changing it into a modern, semi-infirmary type building, without further increase in taxes or borrowing. The commissioners also expect to have a "healthy balance" at the end of the year.

$17,000 To Keep Prisoners
Increase of one mill in the county taxes was caused to a large extent by the higher cost of maintaining prisoners in penitentiaries and reform schools, the commissioners said. Cost of maintenance in some institutions is now up to $3.75 per day, they added. The budget calls for approximately $47,000 to be expended to take care of the county's criminals.

Of that amount $10,000 is listed for maintenance of juveniles in correctional institutions; $18,981.12 for the maintenance of adult prisoners in penitentiaries and correctional institutions, $14,200 for the county jail upkeep and salaries, and another approximately $4,000 to be expended for care of dependents of persons put in jail by the county. The amount is nearly $10,000 more than the amount spent along such lines in 1951 and is approximately the same as the total spent during 1952 when the cost of maintaining prisoners increased.

Balance Up $33,000
Income estimated in the 1953 budget for the institution district will total $199,613.79, an increase of approximately $33,000 over the $166,440.18 estimate in the previous year's budget.

The county begins 1953 with a balance of $90,951.12 in the institution district fund, compared to a $60,522.80 balance at the beginning of 1952. Income totalling $108,622.67 is scheduled to come from $92,162.69 in 1953 taxes, $5,000 from prior year's taxes, $7,500 paid by persons residing at the county home, $2,000 from sale of products from the county home farm and $1,000 from non-revenue receipts.

Commissioners pointed out that the $7,500 figure for income from county home residents reflects the increase from $1 to $1.25 per day charged to persons who can "pay their own way" at the county home. The change was made about the middle of 1952. Ordinarily about two per cent of the residents of the county home pay the amount.

Estimated Costs For '53
Expenditures are scheduled to total $163,175 leaving a balance of $36,438.79 at the end of the year. The county officials noted that large balances are estimated for the end of the year in both the county and institution district budgets because the county must have money on which to operate until the next year's taxes are due. A budget that spent all income of a given year by the following January would cause the county to have to borrow money for some months until it begins to receive revenue from taxes the following summer.

Expenditures listed for the county institution district include $7,350 for general administration, $53,495 for the county home, $17,600 for the county home farm; $1,000 for other forms of county care for adults and family groups, $27,580 for child welfare, $55,000 for the reconstruction of the former insane building and $1,150 for miscellaneous costs.

Recommend Boost In Foster Home Rates

The Advisory Committee of the Adams County Child Welfare Unit met Tuesday night at its offices on Baltimore St. and approved the report of its budget committee for presentation to the Adams County Commissioners. The budget was submitted by Mrs. George F. Eberhart, chairman.

It included $22,300 for board, medical care and clothing for children under its supervision and $4,422 for operating expenses, including salaries, travel expenses and rent.

The committee recommended increases in payments to foster homes for board of children. The recommended rates were: $10 per week for each child up to two years of age; $7 per week for all children over two years in non-farm homes, and $6 per week for all children over two years in farm homes.

Many Cars Skid On Icy Roads Today

No serious accidents had been reported up to press time today but there were many cases of skidding and garages had a number of calls to pull autos out of ditches after Wednesday evening's one-inch snowfall and the freezing rain that followed into this morning.

Cinder crews of the state Highway Department worked through most of the night and about noon today snowplows were sent out again in an effort to clear the highways of ice and slush.

Covered with a glaze, streets and sidewalks were extremely slippery here this morning.

State Police Say

Don't be a carbon monoxide victim. Being colorless and tasteless this gas is almost impossible to detect. Never leave your car engine running in a closed garage and always make certain you have fresh air in your car while driving.

Commissioners

lays for the previous year are noted for the county home, farm and child welfare.

Budgeted for the county home this year is $53,495, as against $46,255.80 spent during 1952 on the home and the salaries of the persons working there. Increased salaries, approved last fall, plus generally increased costs of food and materials were listed as the basis for the budget increase. For the same reason, the amount budgeted for the county home farm was set at $17,600 as compared to $12,060.77 last year.

Child welfare's allotment was set at $27,580 where $19,644.63 was spent last year.
Two reasons were given for the increase in the child welfare amount. Last year Pennsylvania provided a car, gasoline, oil and other transportation costs, while it will not provide such service this year. In addition a new scale was voted for the payment of persons operating foster homes for Child Welfare children.

Foster Home Care Higher
Previously $5 per week was paid for children between the ages of zero to 12 and $4 per week over 12 years of age. The new rate calls for payment of $35 per month for children aged zero to three; $28 per month for those aged three to six; $26 per month for those aged six to 12 and $20 per month for those over 12. Approval was given to the new payments scale Wednesday. The scale is above the average for other counties with child welfare establishments, the commissioners said.

According to the budget for county expenditures, judicial, administrative, correctional and miscellaneous, the county will have an income of $253,063.10 this year and will spend $205,243.50, leaving a balance of $50,199.60 to carry on county functions from the end of 1953 until the county begins to receive tax returns in 1954.

Income includes a balance of $75,767.91, an estimated $146,595.19 from this year's taxes, $12,200 from prior year's taxes, $17,000 from fines and forfeitures, $2,500 from department earnings and $3,000 from non-revenue sources.

Assessment Costs Lower
Expenditures will include $73,754 for general government-administrative; $42,992 for general government-judicial; $49,360 for corrections; $36,025 for miscellaneous expenses, and $3,182.50 debt service.

The budget shows a drop in the amount allotted for assessments. Last year $16,569.40 was spent in that division, while $15,400 is allotted for the coming year. The commissioners explained the decrease was brought about because the chief assessment officer has now been furnished completely and that those expenses will no longer be reflected in the budget—at least for some time.

$8,000 For C-D
Miscellaneous items appear at approximately the same levels as last year. $3,500 is allotted to the superintendent of schools, $1,300 is set aside for insurance, $7,100 is set aside for military affairs. Last year $5,295.96 was spent on military affairs, which includes the $2,900 paid Roy Alexander as director of Veterans Affairs, the payments for headstones for veterans, and for veterans' burials. As a result of the latter two items the amount budgeted is kept higher than is usually spent. Last year $1,275 was the cost to the county for veterans' burials, but the commissioners set aside $2,000 this year because "the veterans of World Wars I and II are getting older."

Bullets Blast Bucknell 79-58 For Sixth Win Without Defeat; John Hopkins Here Saturday

Leading by a comfortable margin from start to finish, the undefeated Gettysburg College cagers ran their streak to six in a row Wednesday evening by routing Bucknell 79-58 at Lewisburg, Lebanon Valley, a future opponent for the Bullets, is the only other unbeaten team in the state.

Joe Lang, Bullet sharp-shooter, was the spearhead of the attack and pushed 10 goals and a pair of free tosses through the nets for 22 tallies.

The game served as a good workout for two tough opponents for the Bream-men in the next few days. Johns Hopkins, reportedly with a very strong team, comes here Saturday night while the Bullets trek to State College next Monday to meet the powerful Penn State aggregation.

Gettysburg started strong against the Bisons' zone defense and ran up a 7-0 lead in the opening minutes via goals by Dale Klinefelter, Johnny Habeeb, a foul by Bob Pizolato, and a goal by Lang. Parker tallied Bucknell's initial points on a goal after four minutes. After Bucknell rallied to cut the lead to 14-11, Habeeb rammed through a pair of twin pointers to make the period score, 18-11.

Show Best Form

The Bullets flashed their best form in the second period when they scored 25 points to assume a commanding 43-23 lead at the half. Lang, Jack Keller and Bill Snyder were big point-men.

Bucknell came back strong in the third period and tabbed 10 points before Lang connected on a long shot. The remainder of the period found the scoring see-sawing and at the end of the third stanza the Bullets were on top 57-44.

A pair of goals by Lang and singles by Keller and Pizolato plus a foul by Lang sent the Bullets ahead 66-46 in the first four minutes of the final period and there was never any doubt thereafter. Coach "Hen" Bream inserted his reserves freely in the waning minutes.

The triumph marked the eighth for Gettysburg in the last nine meetings with the Bisons. Bucknell is now 1-4 for the season.

BEARS IN LEAD; JOLT BARONS

By The Associated Press

Arnie Kullman, veteran center of the Hershey Bears, picked an opportune moment to score the 101st goal of his American Hockey League career.

Kullman began his second century of goal-getting last night and fired home the winning goal in Hershey's 2-1 triumph over the Cleveland Barons in a battle for first place. The teams had shared the top rung entering the game.

Obie O'Brien scored for Hershey in the first period and Ike Hildebrand for Cleveland in the second. Kullman broke it up with a goal just before the halfway mark of the final period.

The Pittsburgh Hornets edged the Providence Reds, 3-2, in the circuit's only other game. Bob Solinger decided the issue with a goal during the final two minutes of play.

Solinger netted less than a minute after he had been knocked to the ice by Providence defenseman Pat Egan who was playing his first game since his suspension for hitting an official. Egan originally was banned for the season but the sentence later was reduced to days. Egan had smacked Solinger with his stick and was in the penalty box when Bob scored the winning goal.

John Davis, Olympic weight-lifting champion in 1948 and 1952, won his first world title in 1938 when he was 17 years old.

Major Samany Lee, double Olympic high diving winner in 1948 and 1952, is the four-time National AAU champion.

BOB MATHIAS CHOSEN MALE ATHLETE OF '52

NEW YORK (AP)—Bob Mathias, twice Olympic decathlon champion, Stanford football star and rated by many the world's greatest athlete, was proclaimed male "Athlete of the Year" for 1952 today in the 22nd Associated Press year-end poll.

The 21-year-old from Tulare, Calif., was the overwhelming choice of the 155 sportswriters and sportscasters who participated in the nation-wide poll.

Robert Bruce Mathias received 64 first-place votes and amassed 249 points on a 3-2-1 basis. This was far ahead of Rocky Marciano, who knocked out Jersey Joe Walcott last September in Philadelphia and became the new heavyweight champion of the world. Marciano got 19 first-place votes and 135 points.

Czech Runner Third
Third with 65 points was Emil Zatopek, the great Czechoslovakian distance runner who won the 5,000 and 10,000 meter runs and the marathon in last summer's Olympics.

In fourth place with 64 points came Bobby Shantz, the little Philadelphia Athletics pitching star whose 24-7 record made him the leading won-and-lost hurler in the American League.

Behind Shantz came Billy Vessels, Oklahoma's All-America back, 52 points; Julius Boros, U. S. Open golf champion, 44; Robin Roberts, Philadelphia Phillies hurling ace, whose 28 games won was highest in the majors since 1934.

Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees, who took over Joe DiMaggio's place in center field and helped spark the club to a fourth straight world championship, 39; Clyde Lovellette, Kansas, All-America basketball player, 18; Dick Groat, Duke All-America basketball player and rookie shortstop with the Pittsburgh Pirates, and Stan Musial, St. Louis Cardinals outfielder, who led the National League in batting for the sixth time, both 17 points.

Jack Kramer Beats Sedgman In 2 Sets

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jack Kramer, king of the professional tennis players, isn't abdicating just yet.

Beaten by Frank Sedgman, the Australian Davis Cup hero, in the opening match of a 90-match tour, Kramer came back last night to show the youngster from down under why many rate him the world's best. Kramer won in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4.

Pancho Segura beat Sedgman's fellow countryman Ken McGregor for the second consecutive night, 6-2, 6-2.

And in what was many was the evening's biggest surprise, the Aussies teamed up to whip the Aussies in doubles, 5-7, 6-3, 6-4.

GHS Hopes To Inaugurate New Victory Skein Against Shippensburg Here Friday

Halted in their opening South Penn League game by Carlisle after previously winning five straight games, the Gettysburg High School basketball team will attempt to get back into the win column here Friday evening at the expense of Shippensburg.

The Warriors were far from impressive in dropping a two-point decision to a good Carlisle team. The team work which played such a prominent part in pre-league victories was lacking and unless a return to that style is made more defeats will be forthcoming.

Like the Warriors, Shippensburg had an unbeaten string ended in their opening league game by the strong Chambersburg High outfit. The Greyhounds had won six straight until clashing with the Trojans. Coach McPherson's husters gave the Trojans keen opposition all the way and loom as a worthy opponent for the locals.

Shippensburg has a fairly tall outfit which will average around six feet. Wayne Shoap 5-8, and Styne Ott 5-9, are listed to start at forwards, Dick Angle 6-1, or Doug Allan 6-2, at center, Dick Arnold 6-1, and Gerald Rosenberry 6, at guards.

Trojans Team To Beat
The South Penn race gives every indication of being a close affair. However, Chambersburg, eight-time winner until overthrown by Hanover last season, showed it must be classed as the team to beat in its 70-56 win at Shippensburg. The Trojans will meet a fast improving Hershey team, 48-46 winner over Hanover, at Chambersburg Friday night.

Carlisle should win its second straight at Mechanicsburg. The Wildcats were 49-48 victims of Waynesboro in their opener. Waynesboro invades Hanover and will be depending upon Tom Cross, its 6-7 center, who tallied 33 points against Mechanicsburg. The Night-hawks are green this year but are improving steadily and may cause trouble.

County League Program
Second round games in the Adams County League and first round games in the girls' division are slated for Friday.

East Berlin, defending boys champs who snapped a five-game losing streak by nipping Newville in opening defense of their crown Tuesday, will be host to Fairfield, 1-5 for the campaign.

Biglerville 4-3, will be host to Newville, while the powerful Boiling Springs will play at York Springs, 2-10 for the season.

New Oxford 1-6, and Littlestown 2-3, will wait until Saturday evening to meet at Littlestown.

The girls' division will play its first games as preliminaries to the boys' tilts. Biglerville is the defending champion.

Rogers Herts' Gettysburg Junior High team, loser to Carlisle here Tuesday, plays at Shippensburg Friday night.

Completing the scholastic program for that evening will be the Delone-Mt. Carmel Catholic tilt on the latter's floor.

Old Forge (6-3) got off to a good start towards another Lackawanna League flag by taking two conference foes, Dunmore and Clarks Summit. The Blue Devils battle Carbondale tomorrow.

Other Battles
Catasauqua (4-3) another loser among defending league champs on opening night, journeys to Palmerton in the Lehigh Valley league. In other Eastern features Coatesville (8-0), Class A state runnerup, starts Ches-Mont League action at Bridgeport; Ashland (10-1), defending champion of the North Schuylkill, is at Shenandoah; and Coal Township (11-0), defending titlist of the Keystone Conference, faces a strong threat in Shamokin (7-1).

The WPAL's Farrell, Class A state kingpin, looks at Rochester as victim No. 11 without a loss in an inter-section contest. Section 3, home of the powers, offers these highlights: New Castle (7-2) at twice beaten Beaver Falls; Sharon (8-2) against Alliquippa (6-3); and Ellwood City visiting Ambridge (7-3).

Johnstown (9-0), a strong threat for District 6 honors, is host to Altoona (2-5) while unbeaten Westmont (6-0) defending district champ with another strong entry, faces Conemaugh Township in a Tri-County League encounter.

Other top attractions include Clearfield (7-0) at Punxsutawney (7-1) and Bedford (3-2) at Somerset (1-7), defending District 5 champ.

Tapeworms have no mouth or alimentary canal, liquid food being absorbed through the body wall.

Opening night in the South Penn saw the only two unbeaten clubs lose. Chambersburg, a 1953 favorite turned the trick against Shippensburg (6-1) and goes against Hershey tomorrow. MOUNTS JOLT SHIPPENSBURG

A 26-point scoring spree in the second quarter paved the way for the Mt. St. Mary's College cagers to register their fifth victory of the season Wednesday evening as they downed Shippensburg State Teachers College on the latter's floor 69-66.

Coach Bill Clarke's Mountaineers were forced to withstand a big rally in the final period by the teachers as Shippensburg outscored its opponent 21-11 in that frame.

The Mountaineers led 43-30 at half time and went into the final period with a 58-45 advantage.

Sal Angelo, Mount center, hit the cords for 21 points with Vince Gulbin, guard, adding 18. McClelland and Reese with 17 and 16, respectively, were the big guns for Shippensburg.

Shippensburg took the junior varsity game 57-56 on a foul shot by Greenawalt in the final six seconds.

The Mountaineers next meet Western Maryland at Westminster, Saturday evening.

DELONE EDGES LANCASTER FIVE

Delone Catholic High opened its Central Pennsylvania Catholic League cage season successfully Wednesday night by nipping Lancaster Catholic in a thriller at Lancaster 43-42.

In the final minutes of play the score was deadlocked at 38-38 and 40-40. Lancaster then took a 42-40 lead on a goal. Jerry Smith, Squire forward who paced his team with 15 tallies, landed a set shot to again deadlock the count and then with about half a minute of play remaining "Ruby" Bair netted a free shot to give the Squires the decision.

The victory marked the third against as many setbacks for Coach Johnny McMahon's lads. On Friday they play their second league game at Mt. Carmel.

In the preliminary game Wednesday, Delone bowed 32-27.

LESTER FELTON WINS FIGHT ON TECHNICAL KO

CLEVELAND (AP)—Del Flanagan, the St. Paul Shadow, planned to visit a hospital today in an effort to find out what happened to his right arm and caused his fight with Lester Felton to be halted at the end of three rounds last night.

The premature ending to the nationally televised bout made everybody unhappy. Flanagan weighed 147 to 151 for the Detroit battler. The fight attracted only 1,608 fans, who paid a gross of $4,176.

"Gee, it was terrible," said Flanagan. "I would have rather been knocked out than had that happen. All I know is that I threw a right in the first round and seemed to throw my arm out above the elbow."

Fans Most Upset
Dr. M. H. Lambright said Flanagan told him at the end of the third round he couldn't go on. The boxer suffered either a nerve or a muscle injury and the X-rays are merely to definitely find the trouble, he added.

The physician accordingly ordered the fight halted and the victory was recorded as a fourth-round TKO. The rules specify that when a bout ends between rounds, the next round shall be designated as the end.

Most upset were the fans, who booed almost continually and called on Referee Jackie Davis either to stop the proceedings or order the action stepped up.

The scrap had no more than started before Flanagan winced and grabbed his right forearm in pain. From then on the action was most tame, with Flanagan using his left almost entirely and Felton fearing his opponent was playing possum.

Except for the addition of Holy Cross to the schedule, replacing George Washington, the Bisons will meet the same teams they faced in 1925.

The schedule: Sept. 26, Buffalo, home; Oct. 3, Muhlenberg, home; Oct. 10, Holy Cross, Worcester, Mass.; Oct. 17, Temple, Homecoming; Oct. 24, Lafayette, Easton, Pa.; Oct. 31, Lehigh, Bethlehem; Nov. 7, Colgate, Hamilton, N. Y.; Nov. 14, Gettysburg, Gettysburg; Nov. 21, Delaware, home.

MIND-CONTROL

The engineer knows that he cannot expect efficiency from his machine except as all its parts work in perfect union. Then it is in perfect control. A car with defective brakes, a dirty engine, bad lights, or un-oiled parts is a dangerous one to use. It is liable to a tragic end at any moment.

It's the same with this mind of ours. If it gets out of control there is created a lack of concentration, carelessness of effort, and that most destructive of all forces—worry. People who keep their mind under control at all times face every duty of the day, and every emergency, without fear, and in a happy, efficient state.

Without mind-control we tumble around in life, and get nowhere. On the other hand, with the mind under control, purpose is created. There are incentive and enthusiasm for whatever is attempted, and there is cheer in the heart. The conscious mind is always in movement. Thoughts are forever flowing through it. The higher grade of thoughts that we have the more purposeful every act we perform.

The mind-controlled man is forever banking thoughts and resolutions that he is sure to have come in handy upon some emergency. Whether when walking the street, riding upon a train, or when putting his body to its rest for the night, that mind has constructive thoughts flowing freely. Merely because you see no littered desk in the office of an executive, don't think that his mind isn't at work. It never rests.

That one who has mastered his mind is fully armed when dire circumstances rush upon him. He stands his ground. He is not intimidated. His courage is of the rare type. Learn to concentrate your mind. Then it will be that you can go from one task to another with confidence.

Everyone should own a library of the mind. To that library many times during the day, and often after the duties of the day are over, is drawn many a treasured thought that has helped to sustain one at difficult times. There is perpetual power to the one with a controlled mind.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Learning." Protected, 1953, George Matthew Adams Service

WORLD'S END

Reading what scientists have penned
About our world of work and play,
I learned that it is doomed to end
In one great furious fire some day
About three billion years away.

The mountains all will melted be
By flames from the consuming sun.
There will be left no single tree.
Lava o'er sea and land will run
And everything that men have done.

Three billion years to come and go
(I think I have the number right)
And then the end of all we know!
So great the shock, so great my fright
I couldn't sleep a wink last night.

M. J. STAVELY IS PRESIDENT OF ALPHA FIREMEN

Monroe J. Stavely was elected president of the Alpha Fire Company No. 1 at the January meeting of the company Tuesday evening at the engine house. Others elected to office included the following: Vice president, Paul L. Hollinger; secretary, Harry W. Badders; treasurer, Paul E. Altoff; fire chief, Glenn E. Ohler; truck foreman, Dennis C. Wallick; pipe foreman, Walter C. Myers; trustee for five years, Bernard M. Selby. The members of the board which conducted the election were E. Paul Bigelow, G. Richard Knipple and Wilson Greene. Immediately following the election the fire chief appointed his assistants, Monroe G. Morelock, first assistant and Luther Hankey, second assistant.

Fire Chief Ohler presented his annual report. It revealed that the company answered a total of 28 alarms traveling a distance of 64 miles. They were in service for 32 hours and 55 minutes and of this time the pumps worked 19 hours, and 50 minutes. The company used a total of 2,950 feet of two and a half inch hose and 2,500 feet of three quarter inch hose. Twelve alarms were answered in the borough and the total fire loss was $69,457; seven alarms in Germany Twp., with loss of $575; two in Union Twp., with $200 loss; seven in Mt. Joy Twp., and Carroll Co. with loss of $24,000. The total loss in the local fire zone was $69,232, compared with 17 alarms in 1951, with a total loss of $49,249. Chief Ohler also reported that there were seven dwelling houses on fire, three chimney fires, two field fires, four garages, seven automobile fires, two factories and one grandstand. There were two alarms since the December meeting.

The retiring president, Bernard M. Selby, who presided for the session, then called for the financial report of the company to be presented by the treasurer, Paul E. Altoff. The report showed a balance of $4,264.09 in the general fund; $5,988.42 in the relief fund; a total of $10,252.51. The relief fund has loaned $3,600 to the general fund for payment of the Mack pumper. The auditing committee was composed of John Burgoon, Harry W. Stavely and Carroll Oaster.

Allen Harner, of town, was presented to the group by Dennis S. Wallick. Mr. Harner had a model table which he demonstrated, in connection with the company's desire to purchase permanent tables for use in the engine house. The other members of the committee had not received information from the companies which they contacted, so it was decided to await further prices before ordering the tables. The secretary was instructed to communicate with the borough council, requesting the purchase of

The members present decided, however, that the policy of the company would be to continue to pump out wells and perform similar services when requested and when necessary. A Bit Of History About Your Own Adams County

This is the 41st in a series of historical talks given over Radio Station WGET by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Adeline Sager professor of history at Gettysburg College, on some of the outstanding events and interesting episodes in the development of Adams County.

This article will conclude the discussion of early Methodism in Adams County by noting further developments. In the preceding article the practical value of the class meeting in the Methodist system was discussed. More should be said about this important feature. I quote again from Miss Margaret McMillan:

"These Methodist class meetings were one of the secrets of the early power of the Methodist Church. For the small groups came together once a week, inspired by the urgent desire to improve their spiritual life. As they talked and prayed together, confessing their shortcomings, and admonished by their leader, they felt the renewal of God's power and His Holy Spirit in their lives. From these meetings they went out to be witnesses to the keeping power of God, in their homes and in their community."

Developed Congregations

The class leaders were important figures in the establishment and maintenance of the faith which Methodism proclaimed. They served as rallying figures for small groups which they nurtured, and led on to development into church congregations, when conditions were at all favorable. Miss McMillan says:

"In those early days of difficult transportation, we read of class leaders like Ludwick Group and Daniel Funk of Rock Chapel. Ludwick Group used to walk from his home near Idaville to Rock Chapel, hold class there, walk to the old Group home for dinner; then to Bendersville, hold class there, and walk home, completing a circuit of 18 or 20 miles on foot in one day, every week, throughout the year."

After the establishment of Rock Chapel and the development of a circuit, the next significant event in the history of Methodism in Adams County was the building of the first Methodist Church in Gettysburg. The first Methodist class was formed in Gettysburg in 1815, with but a few devoted members, who were led by Ezekiah Van Orsdel, who lived in Hunterstown, but who walked to Gettysburg each week.

Build Church in 1822
In 1822 sufficient assurance was felt to build a church at a cost of something less than $2,000. This building still stands as the small brick structure on the south side of E. Middle St. It is now owned and occupied by the Sons of Union Veterans, having been sold by the congregation when the present Methodist Church building on the north side of the street was built at a point a little west of the original structure.

After a notable revival in 1826 the Gettysburg Church added 76 new members. This gave it a position of permanence and of strength, and resulted in the formation of the Gettysburg circuit, including Rock Chapel. This circuit was to continue in operation for 49 years.

The first quarterly conference of this new circuit was held at Rock Chapel in June, 1827. There were then two preachers in charge, one married and the other single, who was called the junior preacher. The married man lived in Gettysburg.

These two men, with the help of 19 or more lay workers which was peculiar to the Methodist system, covered on horseback or on foot the long miles which lay between the 25 or 30 little groups of Methodists in Adams and adjacent counties, from as far north as Pine Grove in Cumberland County and Dillsburg in York County to Littlestown and Emmitsburg and Tom's Creek in Maryland in the south, and from Cold Spring and Maria Furnace in the west to Hanover and East Berlin to the east. These workers or helpers were Exhorters, Local Preachers, Class Leaders and Stewards.

Stewards' Book
The Stewards' Book of the Gettysburg circuit is a precious historical record and is safely kept in the archives of the Gettysburg Methodist Church. On the front page is the following: "Official members of the Gettysburg circuit, 1827. Stewards: Joel Funk, Ezekiel Buckingham, Nathan Stephenson, John Berow. Exhorters: Seth Forrest, Ezekiah Van Orsdel, Isaac Sadler Jr., Jesse Wells, Hansel Beach. Leaders: Daniel Funk, Ludwick Group, Charles Delap, Isaac D. Day, I. May, David Cook, William Van Orsdel, William Thompson, Richard Gilson, William Moreland."

The next entry is: "First Quarterly Meeting at which the Gettysburg Circuit was organized and held at Rock Chapel, June 2, 1827. John Bar, presiding elder; Samuel Clark, George Hildt, preachers."

The list of classes on this date, together with the money contributed by each class is given in another section of the book. Altogether 13 places are listed.

With the organization of the Gettysburg circuit the pioneer days of the Methodist organization in Adams County may be said to have ended.

In further describing these beginnings, we take note of another feature peculiar to Methodist practice. This is the camp meeting. The first camp meeting under the auspices of Methodists in Adams County began August 2, 1815. Jacob Gruber, long known in the Baltimore conference as Father Gruber, a ragged, eccentric and powerful itinerant preacher, was the presiding elder at the time, also holding a quarterly meeting of the circuit.

The preachers were Caleb C. Leach and Samuel Montgomery. This camp meeting was forerunner of many held in all parts of the county during the month of August for more than 50 years. There is no doubt that out of these camp meetings came many of the leaders of Methodism. Very probably it was out of the inspiration of this first camp meeting that the first class was formed in Gettysburg in that same year.

Another feature, while not peculiar to Methodism, was still an important one in their early history. I refer to the love feasts. These were particularly important in the spiritual life of the members of the classes. Regular attendance at the meeting was a necessary part of membership, and the class leaders kept a careful record, and only those persons who were in good standing were given the valued Love Feast tickets which entitled the holders to share in the feast. The order of the feast was the signing of hymns and the sharing of testimony as to their spiritual state, after which they participated in the breaking of bread which was passed along the lines of seated men and women, who also drank water from a common cup or glass.

Were Preparatory Services
Love Feasts were usually held before the communion service, and were really preparatory services to enable those who partook of the sacrament to bring themselves to the altar with cleansed and penitent hearts.

The story of the earlier development of Methodism in Adams County would not be complete without including the part Rock Chapel played in the invasion of Adams County by the Army of Northern Virginia under General Lee. As we know, Lee's army was ordered to concentrate on the east slope of the South Mountains to meet the advance of General Meade.

While the Confederates were concentrating, their scouts and foragers were roaming the countryside, taking what they could find. William McGary was at that time operating woolen mills both near York Springs and near Rock Chapel and he had on hand some 500 United States army blankets, which would have been most welcome plunder for the Confederates. But all these disappeared the night before the Confederates came into the area. After the battle was over and all danger of confiscation had passed the blankets were found above the ceiling in Rock Chapel. The old record says: "True to her mission as a Church of God, she defended the temporal as well as the spiritual interests of her people."

Home-coming Service
In the years which followed, Rock Chapel shared in all the activities of the circuit of which it was a part. Until the end of the 19th century, camp meetings and great revival meetings were held, as well as the common ministrations.

About the year 1900, its active membership had declined so greatly that it was felt wise to close it as a regular preaching point. But as its active service ended, its significance as a shrine of Methodism in these parts increased. Finally, in 1936, the idea of an annual Home-coming Service was conceived, and they have been held regularly since that time. Miss McMillan concludes her account of Rock Chapel with these words: "Because of these yearly Home-comings, it has been possible to restore and keep Rock Chapel in proper condition as an historic shrine for all of Methodism, not only for the descendants of those who made the chapel walls re-echo with shouts of Hallelujah, Praise the Lord, and loud 'Amen's' but for all who value ancient and holy things as our heritage."

SEARCHING FOR LOST AIRSHIP

MONTPELIER, Idaho (P)—A sheriff's posse and airplanes from three states searched the rugged area there today, Wyoming and Utah join today for a twin-engine "troop special" plane that vanished yesterday with 40 persons aboard.

The craft carried 37 veterans of the Korean War and a crew of three. It was en route from Seattle, Wash., to Ft. Jackson, S. C., where the veterans were to be released from service.

Even while the search spread, another craft crashed near Seattle, killing all seven persons aboard. This plane, a four-engine C54 of the Flying Tiger Airline, Burbank, Calif., ploughed into the ground and burned near the foothill town of Issaquah, at the foot of Squak Mountain 15 miles east of Seattle.

If the troop-carrying plane, believed missing in the Bear Lake area of Southeastern Idaho, met

EXCESS PROFITS TAXES MAY BE ENDED JUNE 30

WASHINGTON (P)—Several veterans on the House Ways and Means Committee today predicted that excess profits taxes, now yielding about 2½ billion dollars a year, will be allowed to expire June 30.

But Rep. Eberhart (D-Pa.), a sponsor of the tax, forecast a fight by some Democrats to extend it.

The tax, which can run the government's take up to 82 per cent of business profits, was imposed shortly after the Korean War started in mid-1950 to help pay for defense expansion and diminish any war profiteering.

Automatic End

The present law carries an automatic June 30 expiration date. Congress can extend the controversial tax as is, rewrite it or simply let it die.

Chairman Reed (R-NY) of the House Ways and Means Committee, where all tax legislation must start, already has called for "a natural death." He spoke against what he called the law's throttling effect on business, and unfair, arbitrary and discriminatory tax provisions.

Two other veteran Republicans on the committee, Representatives Kean (NJ) and Simpson (Pa.), said in separate interviews today they share a view the tax hurts rather than helps the economy—and will be dropped.

Need Some Relief

Reed, Simpson and others agreed that individual income tax payers should be given some relief at the same time.

The excess profits tax is piled on top of regular corporate income taxes like this:

The normal tax takes 30 per cent of income up to $25,000; a surtax takes 22 per cent of all income over $25,000—a total of 52 per cent; then an additional 30 per cent levy is imposed on income determined to be excess profits.

Committee members generally agreed there are inequities in trying to apply the present excess profits levy to all types of businesses, with widely varying operating conditions.

But Eberhart said these inequities should be corrected. He said an effort definitely will be made to extend the law.

LEADER OF N. Y. SOCIETY DIES

NEW YORK (P)—Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, recognized leader of New York and Newport, R. I., society for half a century, died of pneumonia at her Fifth Avenue home last night after a long illness.

Mrs. Vanderbilt, who was in her 80s, had been inactive in recent years but never lost her social standing.

She was the widow of Brig. Gen. Cornelius Vanderbilt, great grandson of Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt, founder of one of America's greatest railroad empires with the New York Central as the key stone.

Gen. Vanderbilt, who did not share his wife's fondness for society in his later years, died aboard his yacht in Biscayne Bay, Fla., in 1942.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was the former Grace Wilson, youngest daughter of Richard Thornton Wilson, who came to New York from Nashville, Tenn., shortly after the end of the Civil War with a fortune he had built up as English agent for Southern cotton.

Philadelphian Collapses, Dies

PHILADELPHIA (P)—A widely-known Philadelphia who was active in government, sports and politics, 42-year-old Paul C. Lewis, collapsed and died on a downtown sidewalk Tuesday.

Lewis was former regional director of the War Manpower Commission, at one time served in the Pennsylvania State Legislature, and was secretary of the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Professional Football League.

He was elected president of the Young Democrats in Philadelphia in 1937 and later served as deputy to the city treasurer.

Lewis served in the Legislature in 1937-38. He was named to the manpower post in 1943.

The Eisenhower Story 4.

Is MacArthur Aid

In the gathering world storm of the 1930's, few people heard of a balding Army major named Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Mostly he lived and worked in the big shadow of Douglas MacArthur, the glamorous chief of staff. Eisenhower was an obscure assistant who wrote a brilliant series of Army reports which won him some professional notice but no public attention.

In that hot July day of 1932, when the Army routed the Bonus Marchers in Washington with tear gas, tanks and bayonets, Eisenhower stood with his chief at Anacostia Flats. Newspaper pictures the next morning showed MacArthur with an unidentified "aide." The aide was Ike.

In 1936, Eisenhower was made a lieutenant colonel. By this time he was in the Philippines as chief of staff to MacArthur. He helped plan the strategic defense of the islands. Among Filipinos, he won a reputation for tact and diplomacy.

It was in this period that the dramatic feud between MacArthur and Eisenhower evidently was born.

According to legend, MacArthur once described Eisenhower as "the best clerk I ever had." And Ike is supposed to have answered, "I took dramatic lessons under MacArthur for seven years."

In 1940, Ike returned to the states, still hungry for an "assignment to troops." Less than two years before he was to command an entire war theater, he wrote to his friend, Mark Clark, that he hoped to get a regimental command under George Patton.

"They will probably think me a conceited individual," Ike said. "but I see no objection to setting your sights high."

Late in the summer of 1941, he finally won the attention of Washington. As chief of staff of the 3rd Army, he plotted the strategy which defeated the 2nd Army in Louisiana maneuvers, a battle of broom-stick rifles and plaster-board tanks.

Seven days after Pearl Harbor, Ike was summoned to the capital by Gen. George C. Marshall. The chief of staff abruptly asked the new brigadier for his recommendations on Pacific strategy. Ike gave them and Marshall said he agreed.

In February, 1942, Ike was made head of the war planning division. The next month he was sent to London to plot the basic strategy of a European Theater of Operations. Marshall read the report on June 8. On June 11, Ike was ordered to London to take full command of the ETO.

THINGS OF THE SOIL

THE "WHEN" OF GARDENING

One of the most important as well as difficult factors in successful vegetable gardening and growing of small fruits is to determine the proper time for planting and other cultural steps. This is often as troublesome for the experienced gardener as it is for the beginner. Below we outline a somewhat general calendar of dates to aid our readers.

Prune grape vines on a mild day in late January or the first week of February before sap begins to flow.

Deciduous tree pruning is a task for late January whenever the woods are not frozen.

Sow seed for extra early celery in a window box, coldframe or hotbed in January. When the seedlings show two good leaves, move them to individual pots of bands in a warm coldframe.

Sow seed of cabbage and broccoli in early February for early plants. Move the tiny plants to individual containers in a sung coldframe as advised for celery plants.

To have early petunia plants for window and porch boxes, sow seed in a sunny window box before February 10 and later shift seedlings to individual containers as advised above for celery, cabbage and broccoli.

Place orders in early January for rhubarbs for March 1 delivery. Rhubarbs should be planted as soon as they arrive and soil and weather conditions permit.

Likewise asparagus roots (strong one-year old roots) should be ordered early for March 1 to 10 delivery, with planting done soon thereafter.

All bramble fruits—raspberries, blackberries, dewberries, and boysenberries—should be set out as early in March as soil can be handled. This means roots should be ordered early for March 1 delivery.

And of course, blueberries must be planted in early March. Because this fruit demands an acid soil, soils should be made ready earlier by substituting acid woods loam for the present alkaline garden soil.

Fruit trees should be set out before growth starts, preferably by the first week in March. Again, January ordering of planting stock is advisable.

Gardeners who neglected to plant onion sets last fall for early green onions should do this work as early in late winter as soils can be made ready.

Vigorously rooted strawberry plants bought from a reputable nursery should be set out by the first of April in this latitude. Many experienced growers advise mid-March planting.

Garden peas may be planted between March 10 and 15 because the plants are not injured by light frosts.

Leafing varieties of lettuce may be started in a sunny coldframe in late January, under muslin on the sunny and sheltered side of a building in late February, and in the open after March 10.

may be transplanted to their growing place before frost dangers are past.

Likewise beets may be started before the middle of March. They, too, withstand light frosts.

Plant radishes any time after the first week in March.

Make a sowing of kale soon after March 1 to 5.

Combat scale pests on deciduous trees, shrubs and vines before growth starts.

HOUSEHOLD MILDEW PROBLEMS

Few housewives have not encountered the difficult problem arising from mildew affecting rugs, drapes, stored clothing, curtains, fabrics dampened for ironing, upholstery, and other materials containing cellulose. Usually mildew is most troublesome in humid summer weather but it is likely to damage susceptible fabrics any time in the year where temperatures are high enough to promote growth of the molds that are always present in moist air.

Of course, prevention is by far the most economical and efficient way to meet this danger. Mildew organisms must have food on which to multiply. Dust and other materials usually referred to as "dirt" invite mildew. Too, the molds grow more rapidly where ventilation is lacking or is poor. Therefore, the five most important steps in mildew prevention are:

1. Keep closets, dresser drawers, basements and other storage compartments where mildew is likely to cause damage as clean as possible. Frequent dustings are first to be emphasized.

2. Air and dry susceptible fabrics frequently. The precaution is particularly urgent in moist, warm weather.

3. Stagnant (unmoving) air attracts dampness. Ventilation should be stressed. A small electric fan often solves the problem in small closets.

4. Keep a fairly large electric light bulb lighted for several hours as needed to dry out damp closets and chests.

5. Use one of the improved calcium chloride containers in damp basements and cellars where mildew is likely to appear.

Leather articles subject to mildew are rendered resistant for two to three months by treating their surfaces with a one-per cent solution of paratolphenol in alcohol of a one-per cent solution of thymol in alcohol. Either is bought at drug stores. It is advisable to test a bit of either solution on a portion of the leather where it will not show to determine if the treatment discolors.

colors the surface.

Leathers shoes are made mildew-proof by coating them carefully with a wax dressing.

Paints containing zinc oxide are less likely to invite mildew of woodwork in damp rooms than ordinary indoor paints.

Books kept in damp places may be protected from mildew by dusting them every few weeks in warm, humid weather with a chemical sold under the name of paraformaldehyde. Avoid heavy applications, else the surplus may irritate the skin of any persons later handling the books.

Every housewife should have at hand a set of rules for removing mildew. One of the better publications along this line is Leaflet 322—Preventing And Removing Mildew. A copy may be obtained without charge on request to the Bureau of Home Economics, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Please do not ask the editor for this publication, because he has no copies for free distribution.

On the subject of general stain removal, Farmers Bulletin 1474—Stain Removal From Fabrics, should be in every home. This may be procured without charge by request to members of Congress. In case any readers write their Congressman for this bulletin they may at the same time ask him to furnish them a copy of the leaflet mentioned above.

PLANNING CROPS FOR REVENUE

Often inexperienced persons plunge into gardening, fruit growing or other crop production schemes on a get-rich-quick urge. Usually they choose one of two erroneous courses: (1) They embark into large acreages of such crops as potatoes, which may encounter glutted markets at harvest time; (2) They dream of fabulous fortunes in such rare crops as mint, ginseng or other herb or medicinal plants. Seldom are such hopes soundly anchored on facts.

At the beginning of another calendar year it is wise for all farmers, orchardists and gardeners to ask themselves this practical question—What are the best crops to grow for revenue in the next few years?

To answer this question intelligently it is necessary to examine general consumer preferences in the light of available supplies. At this date and covering recent years the following listed popular food crops are and have been seriously under-produced in the United States: Strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, blueberries, dewberries, rhubarb.

asparagus, winter squash, salsify, lima beans, cauliflower, sweet corn, pickling cucumbers, green onions, and perhaps quinces and Damson plums.

Instantly many growers may take exception to several of these crops with claims that they were unable to find profitable markets for the supplies they did grow. At least two facts must be mentioned on this point. First locally produced cauliflower, for example, cannot compete successfully with the high quality heads shipped east from Arizona and California except by growing the same grade produce. This is possible. And when it is done the eastern grower will enjoy the distinct advantage of his nearness to consumer markets.

Second, when such a commodity as California asparagus or Texas cucumbers reaches the eastern consumer, bearing the long haulage charges incurred, the local grower should not demand a comparable market price. He must be willing to equalize distribution costs. This is fair dealing with the consumer.

As the editor has mentioned here frequently, local farmers and gardeners may develop phenomenally profitable markets near at hand for strawberries, bramble fruits, rhubarb and several other vegetables now grown on a scarcity basis. And with the advent of quick-freezing as a

New Oxford

NEW OXFORD — Young men who have reached the age of 17, or older men of the local Catholic parish who have not yet joined the parish Holy Name Society are urged by the pastor, the Rev. Philip J. Gergen, to unite with this organization at the reception to take place Sunday, January 11, at 7:30 p. m. Anyone wishing to join is requested to inform the Society president, John A. Robinson, or the secretary, Curvin A. Miller, before January 11.

Miss Eleanor M. Miller, daughter of Charles F. Miller Sr., who has been residing in Baltimore where she has a position, was a visitor here during the holiday season.

Men of the Holy Name Society of the local Catholic parish are preparing to conduct a pork roast supper for the benefit of the church, Saturday evening, January 17, in the parochial hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Perry, Baltimore, spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Arthur S. Noel. The Rev. Philip J. Gergen, pastor of Immaculate Conception

Catholic Church, and a number of members of the parish were in Harrisburg today to attend services at the Cathedral in which the Rev. Dennis P. Reardon, pastor of the local church from 1934-37, was among new Monsignors invested by the Most Rev. George L. Leach, bishop of the Harrisburg diocese.

Because of the services at Harrisburg this afternoon, parochial school children were dismissed from classes at noon today.

Young people of the local Catholic parish will hold their first post-holiday activity for the benefit of the church when they will sponsor a public card party this evening at the parochial hall.

Mother, 75, Killed In Auto Accident

NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A 75-year-old mother was killed and her two daughters injured Tuesday in a collision on Route 202 north of here.

The dead woman was Mrs. Barbara Sekretar of New Brunswick, N. J. She was killed when thrown through the windshield of a car which collided with a tractor-trailer.

The auto was driven by the victims' daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Sanislo, 44, also of New Brunswick. Mrs. Sanislo was taken to Montgomery County Hospital where attendants reported she suffered multiple fractures. Her sister, Mrs. Sue Frank, 40, of Fords, N. J., was reported in good condition.

The tractor-trailer was making a left hand turn into a driveway when the car, traveling south, struck it.

Increased Performance in New Chevrolets

The low, sweeping lines of the 1953 Chevrolets are exemplified by this four-door sedan in the "Two-Ten" series, which this year offers increased performance, comfort and convenience in addition to a complete re-design. Apparent in this view are the enlarged front and rear vision, new fender and hood contours and a fresh grille treatment that enhance the rugged beauty of the cars. Four-door sedans are also available in the "One-Fifty" and the new Bel Air series.

DRESSY SEASON TO FOLLOW NEW MEXICAN TREND

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Don't pack that extra pair of blue jeans for your trip to Mexico, dear — better put in your fanciest cocktail dress instead.

This may be the dressiest winter in Mexico since Edwardian days. Henri de Chatillon, one of the city's flossiest dressmakers, unveiled his fall and winter ideas recently and you never saw such frou-frou.

Even if you don't like frou-frou, don't plan to dress too informally in Mexico. Jeans, shorts and a flowing shirt-tail are all right in a beach resort. But you'll be stared at if you wear slacks or shorts in the larger cities and towns.

The tourist commission recently warned its visitors about revealing their legs. It pointed out they won't be allowed in any historic churches for sightseeing unless they are wearing skirts. Almost anything in cotton, as long as it has a skirt and something over the shoulders, is good for most places in the day time. A little something in light wool will see you through the cool evenings.

Has French Ideas
Henri is more French in his ideas than Mexican and his show was the outcome of his summer trip to Paris. But the other good designers here are showing the same trends, even though they may use simpler fabrics and more Mexican lines.

Briefly, the trends are these: Skirts are longer; for some very formal evening clothes they are floor length. Necklines, unable to go any lower with propriety, are either stationary or higher by the diameter of a pore or two.

Everything which could be made of stiff fabrics is, and everything has pockets on the front of the hip, even evening dresses. Henri showed a distinct partiality for panels on the left front and right rear of skirts. Coats generally had standing collars and the front buttons close together.

Hats, always fancy in Mexico, were mostly velvet with feathers. Generally they were plastered on the side of the head. One with white feathers unfurled had a wing spread of 18 inches — that was the red velvet one. Another had the wings furred — white feathers on gray velvet. There was a gob's hat of black velvet with gold beads around the upturned rim. The gown which kept the model circulating time after time was "Botticelli" — cream satin strapless, with the bodice outlined in gold embroidered curlicues. Whith it were cream satin shoulder length gloves, with cuffs like gauntlets above the elbows and the cuffs repeating the gold line of the bodice.

The cuffs were held up by tapes around the upper arm, which might cut off circulation during a long night. But it was something to see.

Jack Nichols of the Milwaukee Hawks in the NBA was a second lieutenant in the Marines during World War II.

Former Blacksmith Still Working At 90

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — The loud hammering at a workbench of a heating concern the other day was just 90-year-old Otho Lighter celebrating his birthday in the way he likes best — working.

"I don't know what I'd do without work," explained Otho, who left school at 14 against his father's advice, to learn a blacksmith's trade. From shoeing horses he went on to mount rubber tires on carriage wheels at a wheel at a factory here. The company sold out with the coming of pneumatic tires. So, at 41, Otho had to learn a new mechanic's trade, involving sheet metal working.

Otho gets up around 3:30 a.m., prepares his own breakfast, and a friend drives him to work by 5:45 a.m. — the first man on the job.

Weather Is Not Affected By TV

CHICAGO (AP) — A Wisconsin woman who blames the presence of nearby television aerials for recent heavy rains and snows which poured too much moisture on her crocus plants doesn't have the support of Admiral Corp. electronics engineers.

They say the weather has had its erratic swings although the growth of TV has been fairly steady in most sections of the country. Chicago has its heaviest snowfall on record last winter and unusual rains last spring but the summer and fall were dry, the TV men say.

CHEVROLETS FOR

contribute importantly to automotive progress.

Features of the new cars range throughout the bodies and chassis. Of major interest:

The entirely new series, to be known as the Bel Air and credited with being the most luxurious models in Chevrolet history. To be produced as two- and four-door sedans, a convertible and sport coupe, the Bel Airs are included in the choice of 16 Fisher body types. Other passenger car series are designed as the "Two-Ten" and "One-Fifty."

A new 15-horsepower "Blue Flame" engine and a refined Powerglide automatic transmission re-engineered for greater operating economy and faster pickup. The so-called "standard" engine also moves up to 108 horsepower, a gain of 17.4 per cent over 1952.

Two Chevrolet "firsts" in the low-price automotive bracket are registered in optional equipment available on all cars. Power steering, which reduces manual effort yet maintains traditional steering safety, makes its debut. The second innovation is the Autronic Eye, an electronic mechanism that automatically lowers headlamp beams for passing.

Roomier and stronger bodies with greatly expanded visibility. All have curved, one-piece windshield from which the center divider has been eliminated. Other body construction highspots include swingout door hinges to provide easier entrance; fold-away front seat backs in two-doors; and wrap-around rear windows.

Operating advances cover the automatic choke on all cars, softer, smoother brake action, easier steering, even more reliable starting in damp weather, static-free ignition, softer front and rear springs for improved ride, and higher capacity generator.

East Berlin

Mr. and Mrs. Fred V. Baker and sons, Michael and Billy, have returned to Rahway, N. J. after spending the holidays here.

The 17th annual banquet of the East Berlin High School Alumni Association was held recently at the social room of Abbotstown Reformed Church with 126 present. A baked ham dinner was served family style by the Ladies Mite Society of the church, after which a quiz program, with audience participation and prizes was conducted by alumnus, Charles W. Eisenhart, now principal of the Steelton High School.

Other prizes were given to alumni present as follows: Merl R. Shetter, '32, Pittsburgh, traveling the longest distance; Mrs. Grace Boyer Miller, '31, as mother of the most children, five girls; Mrs. Clara Mae Cooley, Myers, '48, Red Lion, as mother of the youngest child, four-month-old Donna

Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eisenhart, Steelton, parents of the oldest child; Elmer M. Gruver, '12, and his wife, longest married couple; and H. Edgar Moul, '34, as the alumnus most recently married.

Mrs. Harry Mummert and Miss Shirley A. Burgard won door prizes.

During the banquet-meeting, the newly prepared Alma Mater composition with words by Mrs. Sara Gideon of the English department of the high school, and music by D. Earl Ward of the Music department, was introduced. Pianist Ann Fitzkee, who also accompanied the group singing and supplied music for the quiz program.

IKE'S SON WILL STAY IN KOREA

SEOUL (AP)—Major John Eisenhower, son of U. S. President-elect Dwight Eisenhower, said today he will finish his regular Korean tour rather than apply for transfer to Japan.

Eisenhower becomes eligible this month for such a transfer. He has earned 20 rotation points since joining the Third Division last July. Army policy allows an officer to leave the combat zone if he agrees to serve a greater length of time in Japan.

NEW FRENCH PREMIER HAS WIDE SUPPORT

PARIS (AP)—France's new Premier Rene Mayer set about forming his nation's 18th postwar Cabinet Wednesday with the initial backing of one of the largest parliamentary majorities accorded a French government chief since the end of World War II.

There was no immediate indication whether he planned to invite supporters of Gen. Charles de Gaulle into the government. The De Gaulleists swung 84 of their 85 National Assembly votes behind Mayer last night to clinch his confirmation as premier.

Mayer, a leader of the Radical Socialist (conservative) party, won Assembly approval by a 389-205 vote. In addition to the De Gaulleists, he was supported by the center parties that have participated in every French government coalition since World War II.

16-Day Crisis
His confirmation ended a 16-day government crisis that followed the resignation of Premier Antoine Pinay. But the new Premier still must piece together a coalition cabinet that can win Assembly approval. No one party has enough parliamentary strength to govern alone.

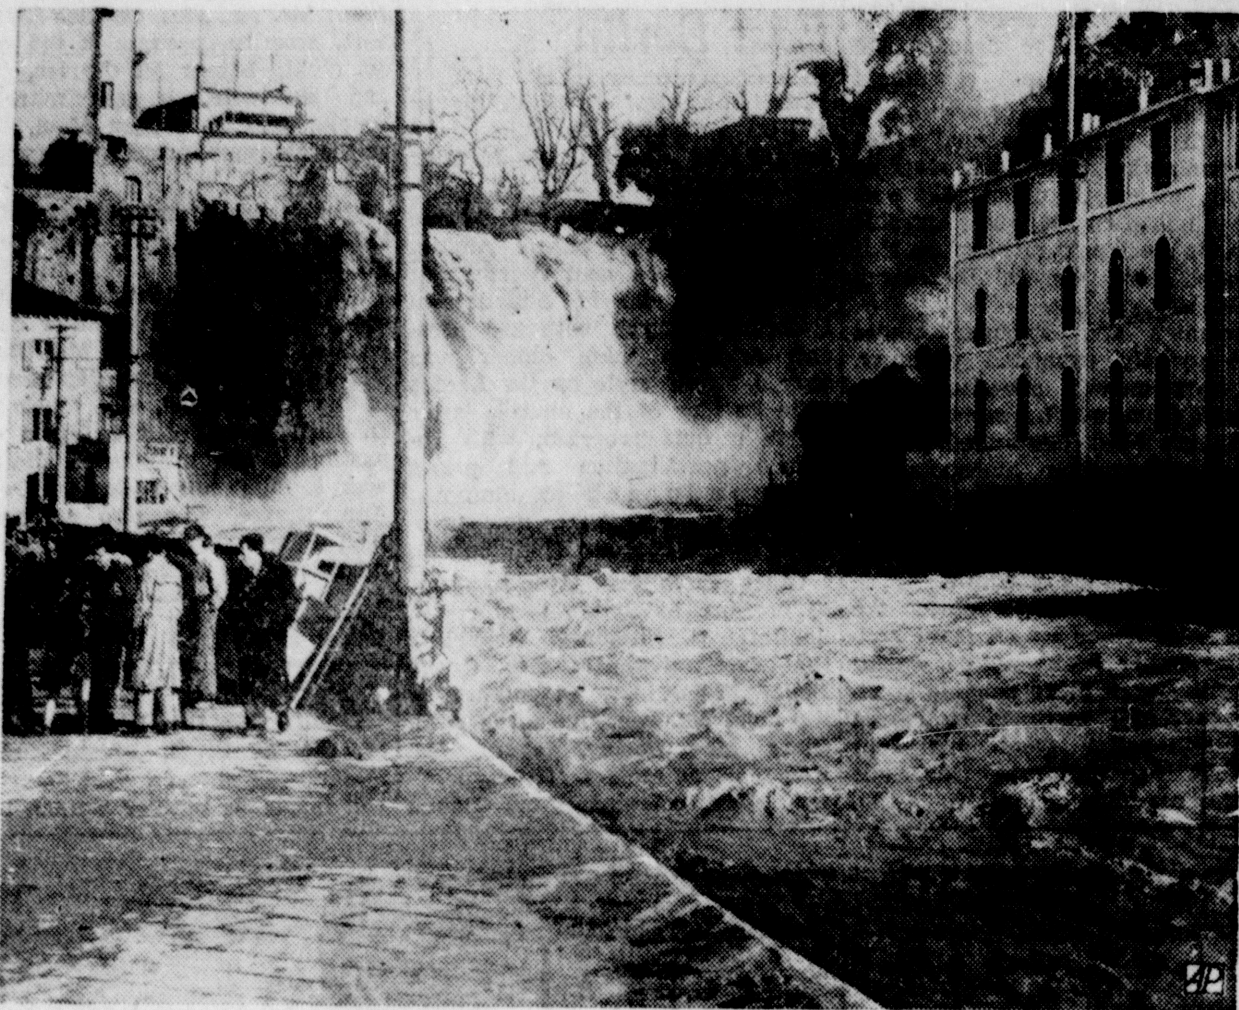

Political observers speculated that the backing of De Gaulle's right-wing Rally of the French People (RPF) would mean a government further to the right than any France has seen since the founding of the Fourth Republic at the close of the war.

The vote marked the first time the RPF has abandoned its opposition role in the Assembly and joined in approving a new government. The move considerably strengthened the RPF's position.

Quiz Bank Robber In Brink Robbery

BOSTON (AP)—The Federal grand jury investigating the $129,000 Brink's holdup heard testimony yesterday from a convicted Needham, Mass., bank robber.

David Jacobanis, 43, was brought here from Lewisburg, Pa., federal prison where he is serving 25 years for the $14,000 holdup on Sept. 13.

Find Girl's Body In Ash Barrel

READING, Pa. (AP)—The body of a 15-year-old girl, victim of a sex slayer, was found stuffed in an ash barrel in an alley near her home early Wednesday.

Her foster parents had reported Dorothy Schlappig missing a few hours earlier and a search was under way.

Police said they believed Dorothy was strangled, and there were indications that she had been criminally assaulted.

Her body, nude except for a brassiere, was found jammed in the barrel in a sitting position. In the alley, police said, there were signs of a terrific struggle.

The body was found about half a block from the home of the girl's

Kansas City Star "Sure" Of Acquittal

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Star said today it was confident of vindication on government charges it violated the Sherman Antitrust Act.

A federal grand jury Tuesday returned a two-count indictment against the Kansas City Star Company, its president, Roy A. Roberts, and Advertising Director Emil A. Sees.

The indictment accused the newspaper of monopolistic practices.

ASK GYM BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The General State Authority will open bids on February 4 for construction of an addition to the gymnasium at the Scotland School for Veterans' Children.

The building will house a new foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Sauber, who had reported to police late last night that the young woman was missing.

Old Telegrapher For AP Succumbs

HARRISBURG (AP)—Bernard L. Theurer, 72, one of the last Morse telegraph operators for the Associated Press at Harrisburg, died on Monday at his home.

Theurer worked through many big stories of the last four decades, including the World War I draft drawings, the death of President Warren G. Harding and the flight of Charles A. Lindbergh across the Atlantic Ocean.

When the teletype replaced Morse Theurer became a machinist, installing and repairing the new machines.

He worked for the Associated Press until about 10 years ago when he moved to Binghamton, N. Y. Recently he returned to live in Harrisburg.

THREE CABINET NAMES FILED

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine has submitted the names of three cabinet members for Senate confirmation. A two-thirds majority is necessary.

The Cabinet members, serving recess appointments, are William J.

Clements, Coalale, secretary of mines; Edward L. Schmidt, Mt. Lebanon, secretary of highways, and Samuel S. Lewis, York, secretary of forests and waters.

Also submitted yesterday to the Senate for confirmation were the appointments of Leon Schwartz, Nanticoke; and P. Stephen Stahlnecker and Thomas C. Egan, both Philadelphia, as members of the Public Utility Commission.

The appointments will be considered by a Senate committee when committee members are named at the end of a three-week recess.

Other appointments submitted: State Armory Board—Richard Brace, Plymouth; State Advisory Council—Maurice G. Paul, Philadelphia; California State Teachers College board of trustees—Mrs. Grace Clyde, Canonsburg; Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission—James B. Stevenson, Titusville.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT
BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

On Display January 9th

Warren Chevrolet Sales

LINCOLNWAY EAST

GETTYSBURG, PA.

HERE you see pictured the Golden Anniversary ROADMASTER—engineered, styled, powered and bodied to be fully worthy of its paragon role in this fiftieth year of Buick building.

A quick listing of simple facts will reveal just cause for celebration.

- ★ It has the world's newest V8 engine. Vertical valves; 12-volt electrical system; 180 pounds lighter; entire engine is so compact, a new, more maneuverable chassis has been built around it.
- ★ It has 188 Fireball horsepower. A new Buick record; engine horsepower per pound increased 40%.
- ★ It has a compression ratio of 8.5 to 1. Highest compression on the American scene today; bettered fuel economy.
- ★ It has a dynamic-flow muffler. For the first time in automotive history, a muffler with zero power loss.
- ★ It has a new Twin-Turbine Dynaflo Drive. Now adds far swifter, quieter, more efficient getaway to infinite smoothness at all speed ranges.
- ★ It has new braking power. Most powerful braking action of any Buick in fifty years; plus the new ease of Power Brakes, optional at extra cost.
- ★ It has a still finer ride. The softest, steadiest, most buoyantly level ride that Buick's advanced engineering has yet produced.

It has, also, wondrous handling ease, with Power Steering as standard equipment. It has superb comfort. It has sumptuous fabrics and tailoring. And its acoustics are so thoroughly mastered that it may well be one of the world's most quiet cars.

But no listing of facts can do true justice to this phenomenal automobile, or to its brilliant brothers, the 1953 SUPERS and SPECIALS.

And no words can really tell you the beauty you see, the comfort you feel, the excitement you experience—when you look at and drive any one of these big, beautiful, bounteous Buicks for 1953.

Will you come in and see for yourself that these are, in simple truth, Buick's greatest cars in five brilliant decades?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Highlights Of Truman Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are some highlights of President Truman's State of the Union message to Congress Wednesday:

ON PROSPECTS FOR PEACE
"As we continue to confound Soviet expectations, as our world grows stronger, more united, more attractive . . . then inevitably there will come a time of change within the Communist world. . . . If the Communist rulers understand they cannot win by war, and if we frustrate their attempts to win by subversion, it is not too much to expect their world to change its character, moderate its aims, become more realistic and less implacable, and recede from the cold war they began. . . . Our resources are equal to the task."

"Yet if one thing is certain in our future, it is that more sacrifice still lies ahead. . . . If we value our freedom and our way of life. . . . we must . . . stick to our guns and carry out our policies."

ON KOREA
"The months of deadlock have demonstrated that the Communists cannot achieve by persistence, or by diplomatic trickery what they failed to achieve by sneak attack. . . . It has been a bitter struggle and it has cost us much in brave lives and human suffering, but it has made it plain that the free nations will fight side by side, that they will not succumb to aggression or intimidation, one by one."

ON THE ATOMIC AGE
"Since Alamogordo we have developed atomic weapons with many times the explosive force of the early models. . . . and recently, in the thermonuclear tests at Eniwetok, we have entered another stage in the world-shaking development of atomic energy. . . .
"We are being hurried forward . . . toward yet unforeseeable peaks of destructive power. . . .
"We are already making good progress in the constructive use of atomic power. . . . Above all, we must strive . . . to bring it under effective international control."

ON THREATS TO LIBERTY
"Every diminution of our tolerance, each new act of enforced conformity, each idle accusation, each demonstration of hysteria—each new restrictive law—is one more sign that we can lose the battle against fear."

"The Communists cannot deprive us of our liberties—fear can. . . . We must renew our confidence in one another. . . . we must take our stand on the Bill of Rights. The inquisition, the star chamber, have no place in a free society."

ON CIVIL RIGHTS
"In our armed forces, our civil service, our universities, our railway trains, the residential districts of our cities—in stores and factories all across the nation—in the polling booths as well—the barriers are coming down. . . .

"There has been a great awakening of the American conscience on the issues of civil rights. And all this progress—still far from complete but still continuing—has been our answer, up to now, to those who questioned our intention to live up to the promises of equal freedom for us all."

NEW ADMINISTRATION
"The presentation of a legislative program falls properly to my successor, not to me. . . . But together, I hope and believe we have found means whereby the incoming President can obtain the full and detailed information he will need to assume the responsibility the moment he takes the oath of office. . . . And I, with you and all Americans, wish for him all possible success."

ON THE ECONOMY
"Free enterprise has flourished as never before. . . . Prices have risen further than they should have done—but incomes, by and large, have risen even more, so that real living standards are now considerably higher than seven years ago. . . . Above all, this live and vital economy of ours has shown the remarkable capacity to sustain a great mobilization program for defense, a vast outpouring of aid to friends . . . and still to produce more goods and services for peaceful use at home than we have ever known before. . . .
"Would we take up again, and carry forward, the great projects of social welfare . . . that the New Deal had introduced into our national life? . . .
"We have demonstrated, up to now, that our democracy has not forgotten how to use the powers of the government to promote the people's welfare and security."

UNITED NATIONS
"We must frankly recognize that the Soviet Union has been able, in certain instances, to stall the machinery of collective security. Yet it has not been able to impair the principle of collective security. . . . The free world refused to resign itself to collective suicide merely because of the technicality of a Soviet veto. . . .
"By a series of vigorous actions, the free nations have successfully thwarted aggression or the threat of aggression in many different parts of the world. Our country has led or supported these collective measures."

GM power steering, Frigidaire car conditioning, "Pedal-Ease" power brakes and the Autronic-Eye are among the optional accessories available at extra cost.

ON EUROPE
"The situation was changed almost overnight by the Marshall Plan. . . . Now the countries of Europe are moving rapidly towards political and economic unity. . . . We may, at this close range, be but dimly aware of the creative surge this movement represents. . . . I believe its benefits will survive long after Communist tyranny is nothing but an unhappy memory."

FORMER COLONIAL AREAS
"Politically, economically, socially, things cannot and will not stay in their pre-war mold in Africa and Asia. . . . Just in the years I have been President 12 free nations, with more than 600 million people have become independent. . . .

ON AMERICAN ATTITUDES
"It has been scarcely 15 years since most Americans rejected out-of-hand the wise counsel that aggressors must be 'quarantined.' The very concept of collective se-

Eight Wheel Colors
Convertible coupe top colors for 1953 Oldsmobiles are blue, green and tan in addition to the popular black. As in the case of body color combinations, styling section experts recommend appropriate top colors for effects of good taste. Eight wheel colors are also match to body and top colors.

Extra wide choice in upholstery trim combinations that harmonize with body colors continue the new 1953 "colorama" on the inside of the models, Jones stated. Light nylon striped cloth and dark nylon pattern cloth are offered in gray, green and blue — to harmonize with the body color — in the Super '88' closed models. Dark and light broadcloth combinations in gray, green and blue are exclusive to '98' closed models. Upholstery in Deluxe '88' models is of two-tone gray weave pattern cloth.

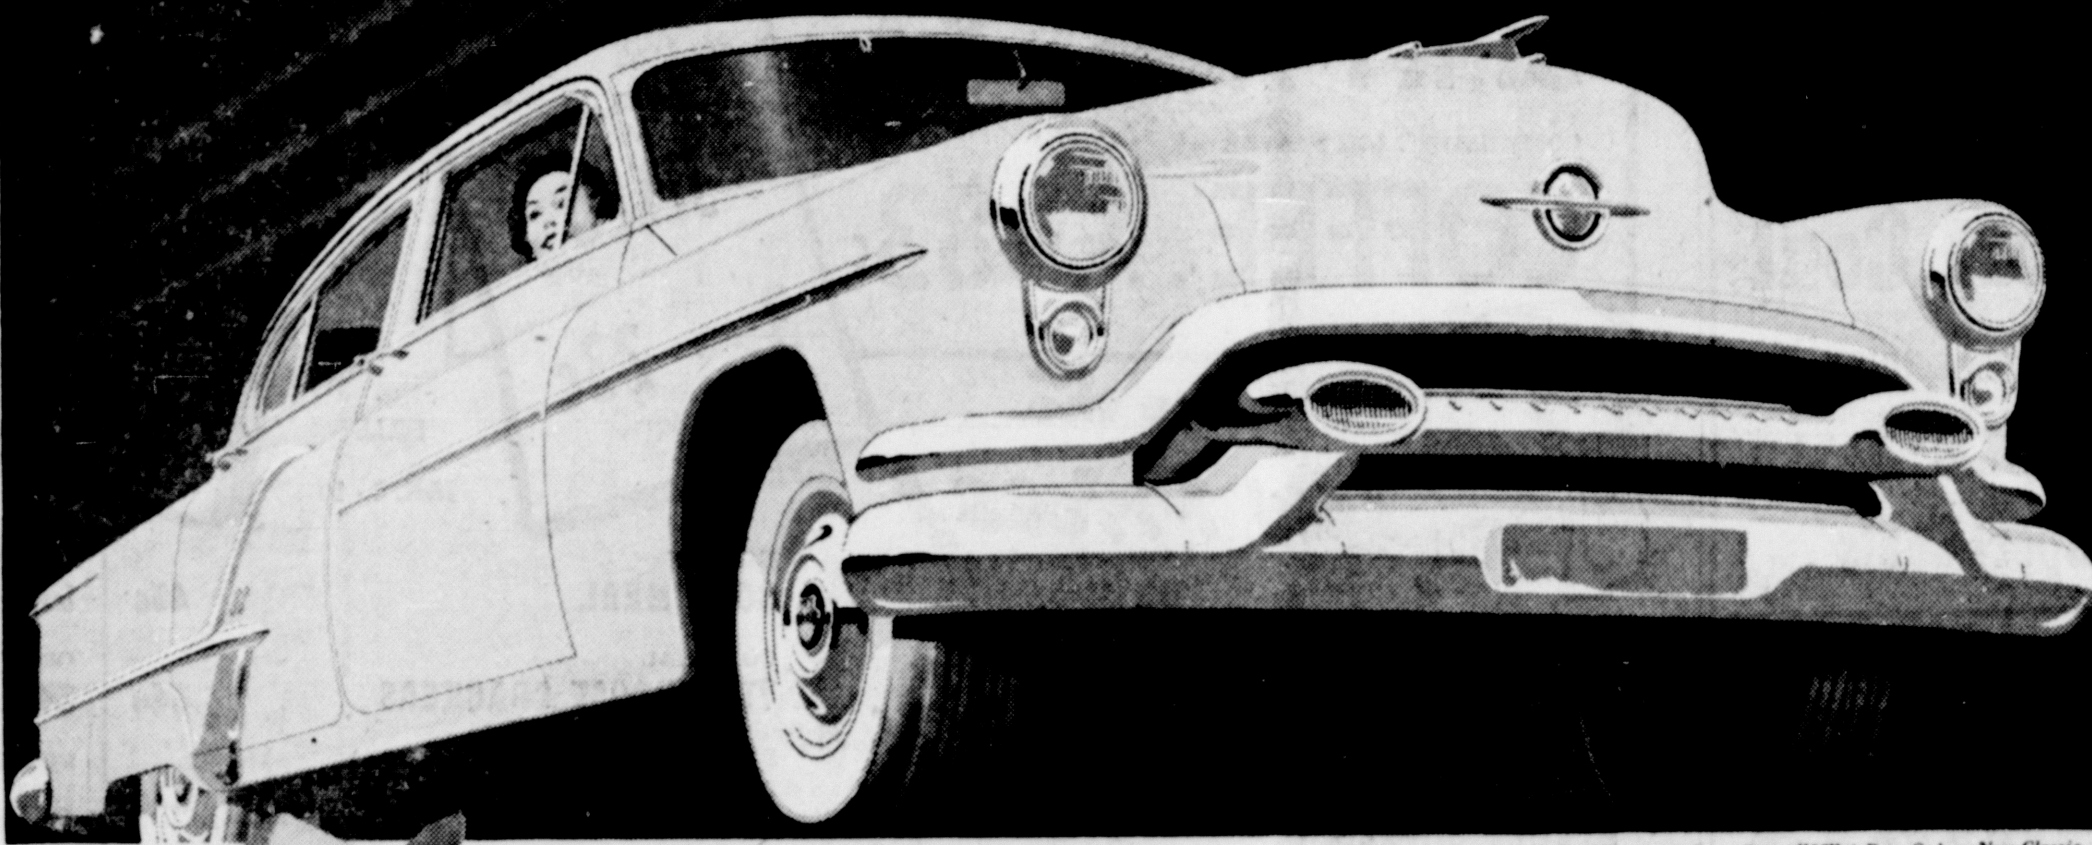

Eight attractive two-tone combinations of leather, including four with ivory leather, and two solid colors, red and black, are available to Super '88' convertible coupe buyers. Six colorful leather curity, the foundation-stone of all our actions now, was then strange doctrine, shunned and set aside. Talk about adapting; talk about adjusting; talk about responding as a people to the challenge of changed times and circumstances—there has never been a more spectacular example than this great change in America's outlook on the world."

Emmitsburg SURVEY TOWN IN MOVE FOR NATURAL GAS

The survey of the Emmitsburg community to determine the possibilities of extending natural gas services to Emmitsburg has begun, Commissioner Wales Rightmire announced this week. Every house in the town and community will be canvassed by a group of men and women who will gather the necessary information.

As each dwelling unit is visited, the occupants will be asked what equipment is being used for cooking, heating, hot water supply, refrigeration, clothes drying and incineration. Also an effort will be made to determine what additional services would be added if natural gas services were made available.

A simple questionnaire form will be filled out for each family unit, business, and industry. The information gathered will be compiled and it will be used as a guide for later developments.

Step To Make Checkup

Upon completion of the preliminary survey, Julius Estep, manager of the Gettysburg branch of the Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, will bring a surveying crew to town to determine the best routes for the gas lines, the size of the lines needed and the probable extent of coverage in the community.

The results of the two surveys will then be turned over to the parent utility company in Pittsburgh for their consideration. The company is a part of the Columbia Gas System, serving 14 states.

Estep pointed out that the supply of gas is becoming more plentiful and that the limitation at present is the result of an insufficient number of transmission lines to care for the tremendous increase in the use of gas in recent years. New lines are being laid as fast as possible and as the supply of critical materials permits.

Need Help On Survey

It is thought that several weeks will be required to conduct the entire investigation. Every effort will be made by the interviewers to

French Premier Rene Mayer Drops Schuman From Cabinet

PARIS (AP)—Premier Rene Mayer dropped Foreign Minister Robert Schuman from his new Cabinet list today and gave the job to former Premier Georges Bidault.

Schuman, France's foreign minister since 1948, led the campaign for European unity and for bringing West Germany into the Western Defense scheme. Yesterday he was reported furious over the new Premier's compromise promise to followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle to seek modification of those plans.

The 22 cabinet selections announced today by the new government chief did not include any supporters of De Gaulle, although the Gaullists had given their 84 votes to help Mayer into the premiership.

Rene Pleven remained as minister of defense and Charles Brune as minister of interior. Henri Queuille kept his old post as vice premier.

Young Finance Minister

Maurice Bourges-Maunoury, who at 38 is considered one of the most promising younger members of Mayer's own Radical Socialist (conservative) party, was made minister of finance.

Schuman, one of the leaders of the Popular Republican (MRP) party, was author of the European coal-steel merger plan which bears his name, and has worked hard to push the proposal which would establish six-nation European army answer questions concerning the use of natural gas and the conversion of units to its use.

Active interest has been shown by the townspeople since the gas company was approached several months ago about services. First interest was probably started by Tom Norris when he and others presented the possibilities to the members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The Vets voted unanimously to endorse the project. Other organizations have become interested and a concerted effort will be made by civic groups to expedite the preliminary surveys.

Several more men and women could be used to conduct the house to house survey and anyone interested should contact Wales Rightmire.

including West German troops. Paris newspapers said Schuman himself had decided to "stand down" and they praised him for his "very dignified" attitude. Mayer, after presenting the ministers to President Vincent Auriol, had no comment on the dropping of Schuman. He told reporters:

"The government and Parliament and indeed the whole country, should have confidence to face the new year in an atmosphere of work and sustained effort."

The new Cabinet, France's 18th since the war, replaces one headed by Antoine Pinay, who quit Dec. 23.

Feel Deep Concern

In the West German capital of Bonn, first reaction to the dropping of Schuman was one of deep concern for the fate of future Franco-German cooperation in schemes for European unification.

Hope was expressed, however, that the appointment of Bidault might mean few radical changes. Bidault also is a member of the MRP and served for a time as Premier during Schuman's long tenure at the foreign ministry.

Recently Schuman has been under increasingly bitter attack, especially from the Gaullists, because his policies often ran counter to die-hard French Nationalist sentiments.

Bidault, however, is not expected to make a major break away from present French foreign policy.

The fact that Pleven remains at the defense ministry, despite his recent difference with the new Premier over Mayer's plan to free sure continuity of the French rearmament effort.

Pleven and Schuman had worked closely together on pushing for ratification of the European army treaty. Pleven is a member of the rightwing party called the Democratic and Socialist Union of the Resistance (UDSR).

A check of the cabinet list showed that the 23-man cabinet was divided thus: seven Radical-Socialists, six Catholic Popular Republicans (MRP), five Independents, two Union of Socialist Democratic Resistance (UDSR), two Peasants, and one Gaullist "rebel" (ARS).

STATE ENGINEER HELD FOR COURT IN AUTO DEATH

A state Department of Health engineer Wednesday night was held for the April grand jury in York on a charge of involuntary manslaughter resulting for the traffic death last August of a 25-year-old Wellsville R. 1 woman, Mrs. Helen D. Zimmers.

Alderman Thomas G. Little, York, ruled the Commonwealth had a prima-facie case against J. Raymond Hoffert, 67, Camp Hill, after hearing testimony from state police and witnesses. Hoffert, who is associate director and chief engineer of the Bureau of Sanitary Engineers, was freed on $1,000 bail.

Mrs. Zimmers was a passenger in a jeep operated by her husband, Clyde, 32, which collided with an auto driven by Hoffert, July 31 at an intersection in Siddonsburg, five miles east of Dillsburg. Suffering a skull fracture, cuts of the scalp and body abrasions, Mrs. Zimmers died the next day at Harrisburg hospital.

Stop Sign Covered

State Trooper James Eberhart told Little that Hoffert said he did not recall seeing a stop sign as he approached the intersection from the west. The sign, according to Eberhart, was obscured by a vine.

In a photograph taken at the accident scene from just west of the intersection and presented by the state trooper, only a small portion of the upper left corner of the stop sign was visible.

William G. Shaw, Dillsburg R. 3, who was driving behind Zimmers' vehicle, estimated Zimmers' speed at 40 to 45 miles an hour but said he could not ascertain Hoffert's speed. Zimmers, who judged his own speed at about 35 miles, told Little he first noticed the Hoffert car as he entered the intersection, headed south.

The charge was bought by John J. Karbon, chief county detective.

CLAIM SOME GAIN IN FIGHT ON FILIBUSTER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate anti-filibuster leaders today claimed some benefits from their opening-session fight despite overwhelming defeat by a combination of Republicans and Southern Democrats.

But they made clear they were thinking of ultimate victory in another Congress and not counting on Republican promises of attempts later this year to make it easier to choke off filibusters.

Sen. Jenner (R-Ind.) told a reporter, however, that as chairman of the Senate Rules Committee he would work for early Senate action on a resolution he introduced to modify present requirements for limiting debate.

Asks Ike's Help

Any such attempt was given little if any chance of success by the senators who battled in vain to persuade the Senate to start off the new GOP-controlled Congress with a revised set of rules.

Sen. Neely (D-WVa.) said President-elect Eisenhower was "the only man on earth" who could bring it about and appealed to him to call on GOP senators "to go down the line" for a change in Senate rules so that a majority would be able to enact civil rights measures.

Just after Neely injected Eisenhower's name into the debate, the Senate voted 70-21 to kill the anti-filibuster effort initiated by a bipartisan group of 19 senators.

Quit Until Monday

With that fight disposed of, the Senate quit until Friday, when it will take up the knotty question of what to do about committee assignments. The GOP leadership is backing a plan to enlarge 10 major committees and reduce five others. When it came up for approval late yesterday, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, the Democratic leader, blocked action. He called parts of the plan entirely unsatisfactory.

The House also took today off. Its next session is set for tomorrow. But it has no business scheduled then other than to receive President Truman's budget message.

NEW LEADERS ALWAYS FACED DIFFICULT JOBS

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—No president since Herbert Hoover in 1928 has been able to move into the White House and relax. Even Hoover had only a few months of comparative quietude before the Wall Street crash.

Roosevelt inherited the depression. To Truman fell the job of finishing World War II and fashioning the peace. Gen. Eisenhower inherits the Korean War and the cold war with Russia.

Truman in his State of the Union message said he is also leaving Eisenhower a great legacy: a nation which rose from poverty and isolationism in 20 years to its greatest prosperity and world leadership.

That legacy is not without strings. With it goes the responsibility for maintaining both the prosperity and the leadership, and the challenge to respond boldly to new crises which confronted them when they first took office. They were replaced by brand new ones, of a different kind, before their time in the White House was finished.

It may be the same with Eisenhower.

Many FDR Moves

When Roosevelt moved in in 1933 he rose to the emergency of the economic disaster with one bold New Deal measure after another.

He had his hands full with domestic problems and turned his back on Europe for years.

But as we drew nearer war—the New Deal legislation had ended by then—he made successive daring moves. Once in the war, Roosevelt assumed for this country world leadership and the decisions needed to sustain it.

When Truman took over, his immediate task was ending the war. Once that was done—his hardest wartime decision was whether to drop the atomic bomb—he faced the gigantic job of getting the country prosperously into peace.

It was a troubled peace from the beginning. As he mentioned in his message, he too had to make bold decisions he never dreamed of when he moved into the White House.

So while Eisenhower's tasks at the beginning of his term may appear monumental, they may turn out to be small and simple compared with those facing him four years from now.

Crash On Christmas Claims Man's Life

Charles F. Dutton, 37, Baltimore, injured in an automobile accident at Cross Keys at 3 a.m. Christmas morning, died Tuesday in the Hanover Hospital, where he had been a patient since the accident, state police of the Gettysburg substation said today.

Dutton was driving north on Route 94 and failed to stop for a stop sign at the intersection, police said. His car and one driven east on the Lincoln Highway by Robert Rook, 19, of York, collided. Minnie C. Joseph, 44, also of Baltimore, riding with Dutton, suffered fractured ribs and other injuries.

Eisenhower Urges Nation Support March Of Dimes

President-elect Eisenhower meets 1953 March of Dimes Poster Girls Pamela (left) and Patricia O'Neil, of Raleigh, N. C.

NEW YORK CITY — President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower called on the American public to support the 1953 March of Dimes being conducted throughout the nation during all of January.

He joined in the annual appeal after meeting the two Raleigh, N. C., sisters who are pictured on the 1953 March of Dimes poster. They are Patricia 6, and five-year-old Pamela O'Neil, both of whom were stricken with polio but now are recovered completely.

"It's hard to believe that these are the same little girls whose pictures are on the March of Dimes poster," he noted. "Now they're completely recovered from polio, thanks to the generosity of the American people."

He urged all Americans "to help the others like them by joining the March of Dimes."

Later, he joined the poster girls in making a short film which is being shown by television stations throughout the nation.

This year's March of Dimes follows the all-time record polio epidemic of 1952 in which more than 55,000 were stricken. At the beginning of 1953, there were 58,000 polio victims of former years still undergoing treatment with financial help from local March of Dimes chapters.

EX-RED QUILTS U.N. POSITION

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—A high U. N. official, admittedly a onetime American Red underground worker and currently a target for U. S. loyalty probes, has quit his post. He is the second American in two days to resign to save the U. N. from "embarrassment."

David Zablodowsky, 49, handed in his resignation late yesterday to U. N. Secretary General Trygve Lie—one day after David Weintraub quit his job as director of the U. N. Division on Economic Stability and Development. Both men were on a U. S. State Department list of 11 American U. N. employees labeled as "communists or under Communist discipline." Zablodowsky, $10,800-a-year director of the U. N. Documents and Publications Division, admitted last fall to the McCarran Senate subcommittee that he served in a Red underground in the 1930s with Whittaker Chambers, chief witness against Alger Hiss. He insisted, however, that he had severed all Communist connections shortly after his service with Chambers.

Says Mrs. Smith Was Temporarily Insane

TOKYO (AP)—The U. S. Army's chief psychiatrist expressed belief today that Dorothy Krueger Smith, daughter of a famed World War II general, was temporarily insane when her husband was killed.

Brig. Gen. Rawley E. Chambers, who came by plane from Washington to testify in the court martial murder trial of the 40-year-old mother of two, was one of the chief defense witnesses.

The prosecution rested its case yesterday. Mrs. Smith is charged with fatally stabbing her husband, Col. Aubrey Smith, chief of plans and operations of the Far East command's logistics (supply) section, Oct. 3.

Wednesday night's snow was blamed for a skidding collision on the Mt. Holly Springs Rd., two and a half miles south of Carlisle when the car of James C. Anthony, Gardner R. 2, skidded off the highway, then shot out of control the width of the road and sideswiped the parked car of Charles Kollas, Carlisle. Neither of the men was hurt but damage was estimated at an aggregate of $300.

ITALY FINES PREACHER, 31; IS IN SERVICE

ALLESANDRIA, Italy (AP)—An Italian preacher for the American Church of Christ was given a suspended sentence of 15 days in jail and fined 5,000 lire eight dollars today for holding a non-authorized religious meeting here.

The preacher, 31-year-old Lido Petrini, is now in the Italian Army. When Petrini tried to hold Protestant services last Sept. 4, some 30 police intervened to prevent about a dozen persons from entering the room where he was to preach.

The government said the church had failed to obtain permits required by Italian law. Church of Christ officials contended that the police action violated religious freedom guarantees of the Italian constitution.

Life Ban Temporarily
The ban on the church has been temporarily lifted while its officials apply for the same sort of government recognition that has been granted to other Protestant sects in Catholic Italy.

The leader of the 22 Italian congregations of the Church of Christ movement is Clinder R. Padden of Brownfield, Tex.

It was not yet known whether the church would appeal the sentence against its Italian evangelist. Witnesses for the defendant include Melvin J. Fownall of Coates-

Young Laborer Is Crushed To Death

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A 26-year-old laborer was accidentally crushed to death under tons of dry cement in a quarry accident at nearby Palmyra.

Dr. John L. Groh, Lebanon County coroner, ruled that Darius Fischer, of Palmyra, died of suffocation yesterday. Fellow workers at the quarry said Fischer was caught under a sudden flow when he tried to jar loose cement stuck at the door of a 10-ton hopper. The hopper is used to load cement trucks.

NEW YORK (AP)—City Hall efforts to settle the eight-day-old bus strike were reported "hopelessly deadlocked" today.

A battle of words between Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri and City Council President Rudolph Halley highlighted the animosity over the walkout on eight private systems which normally carry 2,300,000 fares a day.

Victor S. Riesenfeld, chairman of the mayor's special mediation committee, and Michael J. Quill, president of the CIO Transport Workers Union, agreed negotiations were deadlocked.

The mission service this evening in St. Paul's Church will be in charge of the Rev. Frank E. Reynolds, pastor of Redeemer's Reformed Church. The message of the evening will be given by the Rev. Mr. Raab. Two selections will be rendered by the Littlestown Men's Chorus. The concluding service of the 1953 mission series will take place on Friday at 7:30 p.m. The

Twin Comes Through Another Operation

CHICAGO (AP)—Rodney Dee Brodie, the stronger of the separated Siamese twins, appeared today to have survived another major plastic operation "fairly well," but his condition continued critical.

Little hope, however, was held by doctors for survival of his twin brother, Roger, who has been in a coma since the 15-month-old boys were separated in an operation on Dec. 17. The twins were born joined at the top of their heads.

Rodney was in the operating room for two hours Tuesday as plastic surgeons took a 3½ by 12 inch strip of skin from his back and transferred it to the open wound on his forehead to start it healing.

KARACHI, Pakistan (AP)—Students protesting a 45 per cent increase in tuition fees clashed today with Karachi police, who fired shots to put down violent rioting. At least six persons were reported killed and 50 hurt.

A religious movie will be shown at St. Paul's Church, Red Run, Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock under the auspices of the Willing Workers Class. An offering will be received for the building fund. The Reformed and Lutheran congregations of the Red Run Union Church will hold their annual meetings at the church Tuesday at 7:30 p.m.

STATE TO FACE SNOW, COLD AND FREEZING RAIN

By The Associated Press
Snow, freezing rain and cold is the order of the day for Pennsylvania from the Weather Bureau today.

Road conditions in most sections of the state were hazardous and motorists are warned to drive only when necessary.

Conditions were so bad in three rural Delaware County school districts—Upper Providence, Bethel and Middletown Townships—that schools were closed so that children wouldn't have to travel in school buses.

Storm Hits Storm
Weatherman Henry P. Adams in Philadelphia said the latest snow and rain storm developed over the Kentucky Capes and ran into another storm coming in from the hills of Kentucky. Then a big chunk of cold air blew down from the northwest. When the cold air met the warm air the snow changed to rain.

Adams predicts that temperatures will rise tonight and tomorrow.

row. The rain is expected to clear away most of the snow.

Freezing rain covered Central Pennsylvania roads, making driving extremely hazardous. State police warned against non-essential travel. Four inches of snow fell in Harrisburg last night, bringing the total fall since the storm began to six inches. York reported two inches of new snow; Lancaster, three inches; Williamsport, two inches; Altoona, seven inches; and State College, four inches. Eleven inches of snow was reported in the mountains north of Harrisburg.

Turnpike Is Icy
Reports from Western Pennsylvania said more snow was falling on the Pennsylvania Turnpike from Siding Hill to Valley Forge. The high speed toll road is ice-covered from New Stanton east. Four inches of new snow are on the ground at Erie while icy-covered highways are reported north of Butler and Mercer.

Allentown reported slippery highways and roads but no mishaps other than traffic tie ups on hills. Snow in Allentown has changed to light freezing rain with temperatures expected to remain around 32 most of the day.

At least five persons have been reported killed as a result of the hazardous driving conditions. The latest fatal was near Belle Vernon where William K. Adams, 11, of

R. 2, Belle Vernon, was killed as his sled was struck by an auto on State Route 711. He died en route to the hospital.

OSA JOHNSON DIES

NEW YORK (AP)—Osa Johnson, 58, noted explorer, author and lecturer, died yesterday apparently of a heart attack.

With her late husband, Martin Johnson, she journeyed for years through the South Seas and the African jungles, bringing back numerous films depicting native life and wild animal sagas.

Other officers of the consistory include the Rev. Archie A. Rohrbaugh, pastor, president; Guy Kohr, vice president and repair fund treasurer; Robert Sowers, secretary of vital records; James Stock, treasurer, and John Butler, in charge of properties.
